

SCIENTOLOGY

A broader look at the organization

L. Ron Hubbard
(1911-1986)
Created Church of Scientology, 1953; wrote bestseller "Dianetics," 1950.

SIGNS AND SYMBOLS:
This sign adorns the Church of Scientology at 448 Beacon St.

Sacred scriptures

Church of Spiritual Technology (preserves Hubbard archives in earthquake-proof vaults)
L. Ron Hubbard Library (owns copyrights)
Author Services Inc. (literary agency)
Bridge Publications (sells U.S. books, E-Meters)
Golden Era Productions (sells films; produces TV ads)
New Era Publications (worldwide book sales)

Spinoff groups of Scientologists promoting and selling Hubbard's Purification Rundown

Foundation for Advancements in Science and Education in Los Angeles (does Purification Rundown research and makes children's PBS-TV videos)
HealthMed (sells Purification Rundown at clinics)

Outreach and public relations

Rev. Heber C. Jentsch (top spokesman)
Office of Special Affairs (public relations, internal church enforcers)
Celebrity Centre Churches in Hollywood, Calif.; New York; Nashville, Tenn.; Las Vegas; London; Paris; Vienna, Austria; (home-away-from-home for well-known members John Travolta, Tom Cruise, Lisa Marie Presley, Kirstie Alley)
Dianetics advertisements (on TV, at Boston Marathon, Ted Turner Goodwill Games)
Library Donation Service (gives Hubbard books to public libraries)
Freedom Magazine (investigates and exposes church enemies)
Office of Ethnic and Cultural Affairs (recruits blacks, other minorities)

Groups that teach Hubbard's management techniques

Hubbard College of Administration (for businesses)
Concerned Businessmen's Association of America
Sterling Management Systems (for veterinarians, chiropractors, dentists)
World Institute of Scientology Enterprises in Newfields, N.H., and worldwide (for businesses)

David Miscavige

Hubbard's heir; joined as a teenager
Religious Technology Center
Has supreme control over entire organization; enforces purity of the religion through trademark and copyright lawsuits — and its Inspector General Network; Miscavige is RTC chairman of board.

Training and recruitment network

Guillaume Lesevre, international director
Church of Scientology International
The Mother Church; located in Los Angeles; Lesevre is director, Rev. Heber C. Jentsch is president

Sea Organization in Los Angeles and Clearwater, Fla. (church elite, wear quasi-naval uniforms, sign billion-year contracts)

Saint Hill Organizations in England, California, Denmark, Australia (high levels of church training)

Flag Service Organization Inc. in Clearwater, Fla. (highest level church training)

Flag Ship Service Organization
an oceangoing 440-foot training ship, in the Caribbean

Local Church of Scientology chapters in Boston and 140 other cities worldwide (provide most Scientology services including Study Technology and the Purification Rundown)

Missions of Scientology in Watertown; Hyde Park; Haverhill; Orleans; Worcester; Concord, N.H.; Brunswick, Maine (about 220 missions worldwide; sell basic Dianetics courses; Scientologists pay the church $40,000 fee to create a new mission)

Rehabilitation Project Force (hard-labor punishment organization for "out of ethics" Scientologists)

Hubbard Dianetics Foundation in Boston and worldwide (beginners' training)

Dianetics Research Foundation (beginners' training)

Association for Better Living and Education

(oversees the church's anti-drug and education groups)

Social betterment groups

(most deny they are controlled by the church)

Applied Scholastics

Groups selling Hubbard's Study Technology in 156 schools in 31 countries; actress Anne Archer is spokeswoman

Ability schools

Apple schools

Bear Hill School Inc. in Pittsfield, N.H.

Boston Academy School in Somerville

Community Service Guild (tutors inner-city children)

Delphi Academy in Milton and six other U.S. locations; headquarters in Oregon

International Association for Effective Education (teaches schoolteachers)

World Literacy Crusade in Brighton and 25 other U.S. cities (sells Study Technology; Isaac Hayes is spokesman)

Groups selling or promoting Hubbard's Purification Rundown detox method

Criminon in Concord, N.H., and nationwide (for prison inmates and drug addicts)

Drug-free Marshals in Boston and nationwide (for schoolchildren)

Impulse Control (for drunken drivers)

Lead the Way to a Drug-Free USA (for children)

Narconon in Everett and worldwide (for schools; Kirstie Alley is spokeswoman)

Say No to Drugs (for children)

Way to Happiness Foundation (for children; spokeswoman is Nancy Cartwright, the voice of Bart Simpson)

Anti-psychiatry groups

Citizens Commission on Human Rights in Brighton; Barnstead, N.H., and 115 other locations in 27 nations.

Task Force on Mental Retardation

Advocacy groups

Hatewatch (opposes German government's actions against the church)

National Coalition of IRS Whistleblowers (anti-IRS)

National Commission on Law Enforcement and Social Justice (anti-Interpol)

Religious Freedom Crusade (fights cult deprogrammers)

Groups working to keep Hubbard's teachings off the Internet

Computer Ethics Institute

Task Force for Responsibilities and Freedom on the Internet

The Churches

Scientology headquarters in, from left to right, Boston, Hollywood, Calif., and Clearwater, Fla.

Herold photo by Kuni

AP photo

AP photo